

The Friends

The Friends of St Katharine and St Peter's, Milford Haven was founded in 2014, it is an organisation which unites all those, throughout the town, the county and across the world who wish to be associated with the worship and work of the Church here.

What is our role?

We aim to work with the Vicar and the PCC to enable this House of God, place of prayer and church for the Town of Milford Haven to fulfil its purpose in the twenty-first century. We undertake specific projects of fundraising, restoration and furthering of the mission of the church. We aim to keep in touch with an Annual Report as well as special events and activities for Friends.

Why join the Friends?

St Katharine and St Peter's is a living church. Founded in 1808 it has served the Town of Milford Haven for over 200 years and continues to serve many aspects of the community here. Perhaps you have some connection through marriage, baptism or another association with the church? Perhaps you see it as iconic to Milford Haven and value its place in the town? Joining the Friends will ensure that generations can enjoy in every way this beautiful church and its surroundings. We need your help.
